PRICE THREE CENTS

Civilians May Buy Turkeys; 8,500 On 7 Farms In County; Ceiling Price Fixed By OPA

The War Food Administration has released turkeys for sale for civilian consumption, effective today. It is estimated by the WFA that approximately 45,000,000 pounds of turkeys are available for civilian use with 35,000,000 pounds assigned to the Armed Forces.

The freezing of turkeys for civilian consumption became effective last August 12th and turkey raisers were prohibited from selling their gobblers and hens to any one other than the Army.

With the release of turkeys for civilian consumption The Gettysburg Times made a survey this morning of seven large raisers in the county and learned that approximately 8,500 turkeys are available here with none consigned to the Armed Forces.

Short Of Feed
Roy Heckenluber, Arendtsville, has approximately 3,000 turkeys. Some of his flock are available now. Availability extends into next February.

Mr. Heckenluber faces a shortage of corn. An order for a carload of feed was placed three months ago but as yet delivery has not been made. His last shipment of feed was received in July.

There are about 1,400 turkeys at Baughman's Poultry Farm, near Littlestown. No price has been set and none of the turkeys are ready for delivery.

Paul Osborne and George Shachle, both of Biglerville, each report approximately 1,000 turkeys on hand. Edgar Leer, York Springs, has about 900 turkeys in his flock. Some of his turkeys are available now.

John Chronister, who tends the flock on the farm of Mrs. E. K. Gardner, York Springs, reports about 650 turkeys with none available now. He expects to have some ready about Thanksgiving.

Manpower Short
Mrs. Allen E. Eckenrode, Littlestown, has about 450 turkeys. Some are available now. Mrs. Eckenrode says that her difficulty will be the manpower to dress turkeys. She says that she may not sell any dressed turkeys, confining her sales to live weight.

Several other raisers could not be reached today.

The biggest source of worry and concern to turkey raisers in this county is the shortage of feed.

One farmer said today that it was almost impossible for eastern raisers to secure grain from the middle west. "It looks as though they were putting the squeeze on us," he said, "and unless we can get some feed soon we are likely to face a serious loss."

Here And There

News Collected At Random

There are so many orders and counter-orders from practically all government agencies and so many complications involved in adhering to the countless regulations that it is almost impossible for any one to be fully acquainted with all the "ifs" and "ands" and "wherefores" of the complex and complicated regulations.

However, here are a few items that may be of interest to you:

If you wish to send a gift package of rationed foods to someone overseas you may do so without spending your own ration points. Of course, you dare not send perishable food overseas.

If you wish to send a package of non-perishable food to someone in service you may secure the food points necessary from the OPA. If you wish to arrange with your dealer to have him send the package you may make the purchase without giving up your ration stamps since the OPA will replace the point value of the food the dealer exports.

Institutional users, such as hotels, restaurants, hospitals, schools and the like that had an excess inventory of processed food on May 1 will have the point value of the excess inventory reduced by 22 per cent as of that date. Excess inventory means the point value of the processed food in excess of the point allowance for March and April.

Dates when four sets of brown stamps in ration book No. 3 will be good for rationed meats, fats, oils and dairy products include:

Brown stamp "G" good for 16 points, became valid Sunday and expires December 4.

Stamp "H" 16 points, valid next Sunday, October 31, and expires December 4.

Stamp "J" 16 points, valid November 7, expires December 4.

Stamp "K" 16 points, valid November 14, expires December 4.

Preferred mileage may be granted to athletic coaches, instructors and school officials who are employees of a government agency, such as a public school district or a state university, if the Ration Board finds that it is the official duty of such employees, and compensation is paid for such service. Indefinite Period On New Shoe Stamp

The local War Price and Rationing Board calls attention to the fact that No. 1 Airplane stamp in War Ration Book No. 3 will be valid for one pair of shoes beginning November 1st, for an indefinite period.

This announcement is made in view of the fact that the local board is receiving large numbers of applications for special shoe stamps from persons who may not know that another stamp will soon be valid for their use.

Regulations provide that, unless it can be definitely ascertained that a consumer will suffer hardship or detriment to health by not getting an extra stamp between validation dates, no stamp need be issued in the period of ten days before a new stamp is due.

Severe Mountain Fighting Raging On Italian Front

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
The Associated Press

Punching deeper on the bloody road to Rome, the Allied Fifth Army has seized a key communications town in a three-mile advance and a British offensive to the east has enlarged the breach in the Nazis' Trigno river line, it was announced today, while Allied bombers struck powerfully into southern Austria and Albania.

Berlin declared the bombers had sprung from new bases in Italy, hitting southern Germany and Hungary also. If true, this would signal the opening of a full-fledged two-way application of air power from Britain and Italy to beat Germany to her knees.

In the fiercest kind of mountain fighting, Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark's Fifth Army troops smashed repeated German counterattacks and captured Sparanise, 13 miles inland from the Mediterranean sea about midway along the Volturno front to the upper bend of that river. The plunge threatened to pocket the German troops in the central area.

Threaten German Supply Road

The British Eighth Army crashed across the Trigno river to the east at an unidentified point, enlarging their bridgehead, and threatening the important German supply road from Vasto to Isernia. The Trigno flows into the Adriatic only seven miles below Vasto, and 12 miles above Termoli.

Allied headquarters did not disclose the bases for the smashes upon southern Austria and Tirana, capital of Albania. But German broadcasts said they came from Italy, throwing as many as 300 heavy bombers and 200 fighters into the assault, with bombs falling "over a fairly large area between Vienna and the northern approaches to the Alps."

One of the strategic advantages to be won by invasion of Italy is nearer bases from which to loose heavy bombers upon Germany, dove-tailing the assaults with those from Britain.

Flying Fortresses and Liberators staged the attacks Sunday, Allied Headquarters said, and P-38 Lightnings escorted them. The Lightnings did come from Italian bases. Medium bombers, which pounded Tirana, have been using newly-won airfields there. Clouds obscured results of raids in Austria. Targets were not named.

In the air war from Britain, U. S. Marauders, unopposed, hammered at three airfields near Paris Sunday, and RAF Mosquitoes worried the German Ruhr and Rhineland last night. The Marauders were covered by Lightnings, Thunderbolts and Spitfires, making the return to the European theater of the speedy Lightnings for fighter cover. Harnessed with the Thunderbolts, these fighters may boost the efficiency of bombing, and reduce losses.

Russian armies seeking to seal off the Crimea and trap its German garrison struck six miles southwest of captured Melitopol, and to the northwest crashed within six miles of Krivoi Rog in the bend of the Dnieper river, Moscow said. The Russians reported 6,500 Nazis killed or routed yesterday. A Paris radio commentator declared the Soviet offensive had "tipped the scale at Melitopol and General Von Manstein will have to face consequences of some gravity."

Guerrillas Battle
The Japanese near Finschafen on New Guinea in the Pacific also were in precarious position, beaten back and cut up in an attempt to break through the Australians to reach the coast. The Nipponese forces "are weak in number and of little significance," Gen. Douglas MacArthur reported.

Grave news of bitter clashes in Montenegro between rival Yugoslav forces of Gen. Draja Mihailovic and Gen. Josip (Tito) Broz was reported by the Free Yugoslav radio. Tito's partisans in battles against the Germans, however, were said to have stormed two towns in western Bosnia, capturing 2,000 Nazis. Reuters said Mihailovic's troops had taken the whole estuary of the excellent Yugoslav port of Kotor from the Germans.

There were two tenuous reports that Hitler's rule might collapse in Germany, but that nation, although dangerously scarred, appeared capable of prolonged and bitter resistance. Gen. Sir Harold Alexander warned that "progress to Rome will be increasingly slower."

The bitter Fifth Army advance, however, was weakening the German mountain line in the Volturno area. The Nazis launched four counterattacks in 24 hours east from Sparanise toward Pignatone and Maggiora.

The Eighth Army drive, described as merely "a curtain raiser" for what is to come engulfed three towns, including Campochiaro in central Italy and nearby heights commanding the main road north-west from Vinchiature.

The pallbearers were Frank Donaldson, James Donaldson, Dwight Strausbaugh, Edward Naugle, Harry Lightner and B. E. Benner.

WFA CHANGES REGULATIONS ON APPLE SALE

Effective Tuesday, Adams county fruit growers may pack U. S. No. 1 apples no matter what their size may be, C. A. Hile, Harrisburg district head of the War Food Administration, announced today.

A new order, FDO 832, replacing FDO 83 which restricted the sale of all apples under 2 1/4 inches and under U. S. No. 1 grades, was sent to the Harrisburg office today from Washington headquarters of the WFA.

The regulation "releases all apples packed in closed containers prior to October 4" from the restricted class, Mr. Hile said. However, Hile pointed out, the apples "packed in closed containers prior to October 4" must have been graded and ready for sale and not merely placed in crates and stored at the time.

The apples packed prior to October 4 for sale may be sold on the open market no matter whether they are graded U. S. No. 1 or No. 2. The seller must prove if necessary, however, that some expense had been involved by him in preparing the apples for sale and that they actually were ready to sell at the time the FDO 83 order went into effect October 4.

Most Restrictions Stand

The part of the amended regulation allowing the packing of apples under 2 1/4 inches releases for any type of sale any U. S. No. 1 apple other than Winesap, York Imperial, Newtown and Albemarle Pippin.

Those four varieties may be packed under 2 1/4 inch in diameter but must be sold only to the FDA, federal surplus crop organization, to be used for export purposes. Only two varieties, the Winesap and York Imperial will affect Adams county, it was pointed out today, with the Albemarle not grown here and the only Newtown crop in the county said to have been already sold to a processor.

A large number of apples under 2 1/4 inches in diameter had been previously packed in the county in anticipation of the new order which was sought by the Appalachian Apple and other growers organizations as soon as the details of the FDO 83 order were known.

Other than the lifting of the restrictions on U. S. 1's less than 2 1/4 inches in diameter and the release of apples packed prior to October 4, all restrictions on apples provided by FDO 83 continue, Mr. Hile said.

LEGS BROKEN BY FARM TRACTOR

George M. Fowler, 48, Littlestown R. 1 farmer, suffered fractures of both legs Saturday when he was run over by his own tractor after jumping from the vehicle.

The rear wheel hit him throwing him to the ground and then the wheel passed over both his legs. He was admitted as a patient at the Warner hospital Saturday and discharged Sunday.

RUSSIA IS SCENE OF CRUCIAL WAR DEVELOPMENTS

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(Associated Press War Analyst)

Russia continues to be the crucial theater in our global conflict, with vast issues of both war and peace at stake—the one along the bloody Dnieper front and the other in the tranquil atmosphere (we hope) of the conference table in Moscow.

These two momentous events may come to rank among the decisive developments of the world struggle. The titanic battle of the Dnieper is in that delicately balanced stage where it could within a short time produce a German debacle. The politico-military parley among representatives of the big three—America, Russia and Britain—is dealing in the preliminary stages with problems which affect all mankind.

Because defeat of Hitler as quickly as possible means so much to us, the terrible conflict among the Dnieper may seem to be more important than the Moscow parley. I doubt whether it is, though. The Red offensive could bog down in the autumn deluge and mud without damage to the Allied cause other than a delay in smashing the Hitlerites, whereas a failure of the big three conference to lay the foundations of full cooperation, might be so disastrous as to precipitate another world conflict.

The first task of conferees Hull, Eden and Molotov is to remove the distrust and suspicion which have been plaguing the three major powers. Until that is done there can be little progress in settling such complicated problems as post-war boundaries and the political complexion of European governments which now are in the melting pot. Unless it is done there's likely to be another war in our time.

"Peace in Our Time"
That phrase "war in our time," which just slipped into our copy, reminds one of the late British Prime Minister Chamberlain's famous slogan "peace in our time," and of an interesting discovery by my colleague Sigrid Arne, Associated Press writer. In running through an old song book Miss Arne paused over the Russian national anthem of czarist days, and there big as a church steeple was the double of our friend "peace in our time." The last line of each of the three verses of the anthem is:

"Give to us peace in our time, O Lord."

Maybe that's a good augury for the Moscow conference. What Mr. Chamberlain failed to achieve at Munich (to which this columnist followed him) may be accomplished in the native land of the old anthem. It's logical to believe that the battle of the Dnieper might influence the Moscow conference if the fighting should produce a sudden Nazi rout. Certainly the warmly debated question of the "second front" would come up for review, since a great Nazi upset would be bound to revive the Russian demand for invasion of France in order to get Hitler between two fires and secure a quick killing.

All Roads Mined
The latest news of the battle makes bad reading for Berlin. It places the onrushing Red forces almost in the big mining city of Krivoi Rog—strategic railway center of the huge Dnieper river bend which the Reds are in process of cutting off, with the object of encircling and annihilating maybe half a million Hitlerite troops. One German broadcast described the Russian Army in the bend as a "steam roller."

Down in Italy both the American Fifth Army and the British Eighth Army continued over the week-end to smash holes in the Nazi line across the peninsula, but the going is tough and progress isn't rapid. The mountainous nature of the terrain lends itself to defense, and the Germans are taking full advantage of this. General Sir Harold Alexander, second in command to General Eisenhower, cautions that "progress to Rome will be increasingly slow."

"All roads lead to Rome," says Alexander, "but all roads are mined and bridges are down. Slogging across country is very costly and slow, but we must get to Rome."

American's Day Starts With Breakfast

American crystal never asks the time of day. You can set it out for breakfast, again for lunch, dinner, and all other times when food or drink is in order. It sparkles and glorifies any setting and is sturdily made to endure hard usage. Another virtue is its amazing low price. Still another, it is open stock. You can always match and add. So can one for whom you buy American as a gift.

Remember Me?

I'M THE GUY who looked at you from a USO poster little over a year ago.

I'm the guy you forked over $34,000,000 for—so that, through the USO, you could let me and all my buddies know that someone home still thought about us—still cared enough not to want us to miss out on any of the things we were in uniform fighting for.

A hot cup of coffee for example, when you come in all grimy and tuckered out from a little "business" trip...

A club house with easy chairs to melt into and desks to sit at and write home and a dance floor and some decent girls to give us out here a little reminder of what it's still like back there.

You remember, don't you?

You probably dug deep for a lot of other things that year, too...for British War Relief, United China Relief, and so on. Well, this year it's going to be simpler for you. Because this year, seventeen war relief agencies have banded together into one great big campaign—to make it easier for you to give, and easier for them to distribute the funds.

They're calling this one big campaign the National War Fund, and it includes most of the major war relief agencies. Because it does, this time you are only asked to give once for all seventeen.

And take it from me, as one who ought to know, that contribution you're going to make is one of the greatest things you can do to bring about victory. Not just because part of it's going to USO to do wonders for the morale of the fellows under arms, but because a good deal of it is going to help relieve distress at home through local agencies—as well as abroad, to help keep our allies in the fight.

So when you're asked to give to the united campaign of the National War Fund and our community's own war fund this month, remember me. Every dollar you give to the National War Fund helps me out in countless ways, and does its bit to bring me home sooner.

Give in a big way, will ya?

Just Folks

THE PERFECT MAN

The fellow who never had made
a mistake
owned nothing whatever of value to break
a dollar not once had he ventured to lose;
if crossroads the right one attempted to choose.
He lived all his life safe at home in his chair.
And had even evaded the day's problems there.

The fellow who never had made
a mistake
Had done not a deed, just for sentiment's sake.
Between good and bad he'd made
never a choice;
Had formed no opinions he'd courage to voice.
Yet to miss all the fun of this life
in that way
Must be blunder enough in itself,
I should say.

The fellow who never had made
a mistake
Had never once tried some improvement to make.
He never had bought and he never had sold;
Though he breathed, he was dead
as a monument cold.
For mistakes are the steps by which men higher rise,
And they're always the proof of the fellow who tries.

Today's Talk
By George Matthew Adams

THE SUCCESSFUL MAN

There have been all sorts of definitions explaining what comprises the successful man. Some say that if a man has accumulated a great deal of money he can be counted upon as a success. Others say that if he has attained great social or political distinction he may be said to be successful.

My idea is that a man has become a success—if he has done the thing in life that he most wanted to do—whether this has brought him either money or fame. Often such a procedure has brought both. Just as often it has brought neither—simply personal satisfaction and delight.

I have a friend who started out to become a lawyer. Then he dropped the study of law and took to newspaper writing. Now he is noted for his exquisite books on nature that he illustrates himself with really marvelous photographs, having become an expert with the camera. I have rarely talked with a man who has so inspired me. He is now doing the thing that all his life he wanted most to do.

Admiral Peary devoted practically all his active lifetime in the pursuit of one idea—to discover the North Pole. After he had attained this objective his health broke and he was left a poor man. But he was satisfied. He had done the thing he most wanted to do. He once wrote me an interesting letter in which he stated this to be a fact.

Henry D. Thoreau was probably looked upon by his neighbors in Concord as a very strange man, and a wastrel of time. He rarely took a job at labor for money, and he took little interest in politics, even refusing to pay his poll tax! He also had few intimates. But there was not a single thing in nature that he did not love. Creatures of the field and pond knew him as an intimate, and every flower smiled at his appearance. He knew each by name, and talked with it. Today his books are among the prized. He was a great success.

No one, other than ourselves, can set before us the one criterion by which we are to be pointed out as a success. Jesus said, in substance:
"Seek ye first the Kingdom of Heaven, and all else will be added unto you."

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO

Dr. J. Wesley McGee, Dental Surgeon. Having returned to Gettysburg, will be happy to render his professional services to all who may need the aid of a dentist. He is prepared to insert mineral incorruptible teeth, from one tooth to an entire set, plug, cleanse, extract, and remove irregularities of the teeth, and perform all other operations within the province of dental surgery, conducive to the health, beauty and preservation of the teeth, upon the most improved principles of the science.

Being well aware of the fact that there are many persons who from toothache and various other diseases to which the teeth, gums, etc., are liable, but in consequence of the exigency of the times, and scarcity of money, think themselves unable to afford to spend a trifle for the preservation of those very useful organs, he begs leave to say that his charges will be very moderate so that all who need may avail themselves of his services; as his stay here will be necessarily short. He may be consulted at his office, at the residence of Rev. T. McGee, or will visit upon persons at their residences if requested.

Married: On Thursday, in Hanover, by the Rev. J. Sechler, Mr. Samuel Little, of Gettysburg, to Miss Rebecca Bringham, of Hanover.

It is stated that the cannon discharged at Trepout, France, on the landing of Queen Victoria, was heard in England at the distance of seventy miles. The discharging of cannon at Waterloo was heard in England.

The thrift of our Yankee brethren is ever active to turn to account everything which the soil of New England or the ingenious industry of her sons produces. Among the exports from Boston to Calcutta last week, were one hundred dozen peaches, carefully packed in ice.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

The Horse Railway: The Gettysburg Springs company are pushing their contemplated railway to the springs with the vigor which characterizes all their movements. They have purchased from the Theological seminary the right of way through their grounds, which secures the project against all contingency, as the company owns all the land along the balance of the route. They have already opened a street 60 feet wide through the Tyson property, on a direct line with Chambersburg street, and are building a substantial stone bridge, through which "Stevens run" will pass. The new road is being graded and will be a marked improvement to the western section of town. The lower part of Chambersburg street will be cut down two or three feet, and the hollow beyond filled up, making a gradual grade the entire length of the street. The new street opened to the top of Seminary Ridge, we presume the Millerstown road, between the Ridge and town, will be vacated.

The railroad track will for the present, deflect from the foot of Chambersburg street, passing around the foundry, and connecting with the railroad at or near Washington street, for freight purposes. As soon as the Springs Hotel is put up and the passenger travel justifies it, the track will be continued through Chambersburg street to the diamond, and thence to the depot.

Survey: Lieut. W. H. Chase, of the Engineer Corps, USA, is now engaged in making a topographical survey of the Gettysburg Battlefield, under orders from the War department. By a notice in another column it will be seen that he desires the stakes and bench marks to remain undisturbed until the survey is completed.

Married: Byers—Roth—On the 25th inst., in Mummaburg, at the house of Jacob Hartman by Rev. M. Snyder, Mr. Henry W. Byers to Margie L. Roth, both of this county.

Herr—Myers—On the 22d inst., by the Rev. Samuel Yindling, Mr. John P. Herr, of Conowago township, Adams county, to Miss Sue B. Myers, of Heidelberg township, York county.

Saylor—Shindeldecker—On the 20th inst., by A. C. Musselman, Esq., Mr. John Saylor to Miss Nancy Shindeldecker, both of Adams county, Pa.

Grim—Hull—On Tuesday, 20th inst., by Rev. Dr. Hauer, Alexius Grim, of this county, to Kate E. Hull, of Perry county.

Leister—Troste—On the 22d inst., by the Rev. E. Breidenbaugh, Mr. Amos Leister to Miss Margaret S. E. Troste, both of Cumberland township.

75,000 WITHOUT FUEL AFTER GAS BLAST IN EASTON

Easton, Pa., Oct. 25 (AP)—Seventy-five thousand persons and more than a score of war plants in Easton and surrounding towns were without fuel for cooking, heating and industrial purposes today. Following a Sunday morning explosion and fire that destroyed a large part of the Easton Gas Works.

Saying a "serious health problem" existed, Mayor Joseph Morrison proclaimed an emergency last night and pleaded for all possible speed in restoring service.

The blast took a toll of three lives, injured 19 persons seriously enough to require hospitalization, and caused minor injuries to scores of others who were treated in their homes and at stations set up by the Red Cross Disaster Committee.

Half Million Loss
Mayor Morrison said $500,000 would be a conservative estimate of the damage. Windows were broken as far as two miles away, and 25 homes near the plant were condemned because of damage.

Emergency kitchens established by the Red Cross will remain in operation as long as needed, Mayor Morrison announced. He appealed to persons having coal, electric or bottled gas cooking facilities to aid in feeding their neighbors.

The dead men were John Kepic of Dunmore, Pa., a truck driver who was delivering a load of oil to the plant where the blast occurred, and Henry Jordan and Floyd Transue, both of Easton, gas works employees. Both bodies were removed from the wreckage. Transue died early this morning in Easton hospital.

Cause Unexplained

Oscar E. Benson, area manager for the utility, said there was no way of knowing when normal service could be restored. He hoped, with the help of engineers from New York and Reading, to have some sort of emergency service in operation in 48 hours, he said at a conference with city officials.

Residents of the 25 condemned homes found shelter with neighbors, while the rest of the 1,000 persons evacuated from the blast area returned to their damaged residences. There was no immediate explanation of the blast. John F. Sears, officer in charge of the Philadelphia office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, said the FBI is making a routine investigation.

Flashes of Life

AMBITION

Blossburg, Pa. (AP)—The mail brought Walter Pawlak, Sr., an application blank for enlistment in the Marines and a request to appear for an interview. It was all a mystery to him until he talked to Walter, Jr.

The younger Pawlak finally agreed to wait a few more years before becoming a leatherneck. He's 11.

THEME WITH VARIATIONS

Yuma, Ariz. (AP)—Isaac Newton, a Quechan Indian, drew a fine of $10 or 10 days in jail in police Magistrate J. T. Hodges' court—and Hodges passed sentence in Newton's native tongue.

The next defendant drew the same sentence, in English.

And Carlos Vega, the third offender, heard Hodges intone: "Diez dias y diez pesos"—10 days or $10.

LOVE'S EMBERS

Yuma, Ariz. (AP)—A Los Angeles man wrote Willard Daniel, clerk of the Yuma county superior court, seeking a certified copy of a marriage license issued July 20, 1939, to himself—and "a lady whose name I have forgotten."

UNSUBTLE

Falls City, Neb. (AP)—The Lions club, deciding it wanted to encourage marriage, voted to present $10 to any club member who took a wife.

Member Walter Gerhardt thought the action a little pointed. He's the only bachelor in the club.

HERO WEBS

Pittsburgh, Oct. 25 (AP)—A romance which started four years ago at a college dance ended in orange blossoms Saturday when Rosemary Fullen of Swissville, Pa., became the bride of Maj. Thomas J. Lynch, of Catasauqua, Pa., who shot down 16 Japanese warplanes in the Pacific theater.

The number of persons speaking the English language is approximately 200,000,000.

U. S. War Workers To Visit England

Washington, Oct. 25 (AP)—Hugh T. Maloney, 33, of Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, an employee of the Bethlehem Steel corporation and member of the United Steelworkers of America (CIO) is one of four American war workers chosen to visit England at government expense and tell British workers about life and work in the United States.

Four British workers will accompany them on their return, for a similar tour of this country.

Announcing the project, Elmer Davis, director of the Office of War Information, said it would inaugurate "a plan to exchange war plant workers between the United States and Britain." The program is sponsored jointly by the OWI and the British Ministry of Information.

The other three workmen are Joseph Smith, 46, Detroit; Stanley Ceizyk, 39, Burbank, California, and Otto O. Butler, 50, East St. Louis, Illinois.

COMMISSION IS READY TO SOLVE ANY PROBLEMS

Harrisburg, Oct. 25 (AP)

Troubled with squirrels in the attic? Or maybe you're seeking a friendly way of evicting a skunk from the cellar—write the Pennsylvania Game Commission.

In addition to issuing licenses and looking after the welfare of both hunters and their quarry, the commission operates an information bureau which calls for answers to such questions as:

"How can we get rid of squirrels in our attic? We can't sleep."

"Nuts," the commission told the Ardmore inquirer, "should be used to bait an ordinary flat rat trap and wham—you've caught a squirrel."

To a western Pennsylvania writer who wanted to know how to ease a skunk out of his cellar without repercussions, the commission advised placing a plank from the floor to the window and assured him the furry tenant would walk out unassisted.

Charles F. Stambaugh, chief law enforcement clerk, said he can't always help those who write in, and explained a soldier on furlough wanted permission to hunt "just one day" before the game season opened because he was due to go overseas. "That would take a special act of Legislature and we had to turn him down," said Stambaugh.

He also explained to a "1-A" registrant it was impossible for the commission to redeem a hunting license if he was inducted into the armed forces before the big game season opened.

Stambaugh wrote "no" to such questions as "Is it lawful to sell deer tails in Pennsylvania?" and "Are there any mule deer in this state?"

Father, Daughter Lost In Flames

Scottsdale, Pa., Oct. 25 (AP)—Fire which may have started from a cigarette smoked in bed snuffed out the lives of Pearl Fulmer, 23, and her two-year-old daughter, Patricia Ann, yesterday at their home in nearby Old Bethany.

The father and daughter had suffered minor injuries in an auto collision near Scottsdale and had been sent home by police in another car.

Scottsdale firemen said Fulmer apparently put the child to bed and on then lay down beside her, smoking a cigarette. His death was attributed to suffocation; hers to burns and shock.

Firemen, who extinguished the flames and discovered the tragedy, said two dogs also perished in the fire.

Elastic Fourth On Women's List

Washington, Oct. 25 (AP)—American women—next to more food, fuel and better transportation—want elastic.

They want it for their girdles; for garters; for scanties and panties for women and girls; and for shorts and drawers for husband and son.

That's what the Office of Civilian Requirements says it found after a preliminary survey among women at home and in factories in every state. They were asked no specific questions. They were urged to tell what, among things made scarce or inconvenient by war, came first to mind as things they thought they needed most.

NEW TAX PLAN WILL SIMPLIFY TAX PAYMENTS

By JAMES MARLOW and GEORGE ZIELKE

Washington, Oct. 25 (AP)—The new federal income tax proposal adopted by the House Ways and Means committee is mainly a way to simplify tax payments.

It would result in some increases in the case of single persons and for married couples who file separate returns.

Repealing the victory tax, boosting the normal tax rate from the present 6 per cent to 10 per cent, and eliminating the earned income credit, as voted by the committee Friday, would tend to cancel out one another—but simplify the arithmetic—in their effect on the average married taxpayer.

Cuts Exemption

The average single person, however, would run into a moderate increase. That's because the single person's exempt income under the entire new tax would be the regular $500 exemption, whereas the present victory tax exemption is $624.

On the other hand, in the case of the married taxpayer, the increased normal tax wouldn't hit his income between $624 (his present victory tax exemption) and $1200 (the regular income tax exemption) but he'd wind up owing about the same amount of taxes.

The simplification comes in this way:

Instead of the present complicated system, you'd simply subtract from total income your exemptions and deductions (for charity, taxes paid and so on) and pay 23 per cent on the balance—up to $2,000 of taxable income. That's the 13 per cent surtax bracket. Above that, the surtaxes mount.

May Lose $200

Under the proposed plan, married persons who file separate returns would receive only a single person's exemption each. This, in effect, would cut their total exemption by $200. For example, if childless, instead of the present $1,200, such a couple would get a total exemption of $1,000.

The committee also included a minimum tax proposal—3 per cent of net income over $500 if single, or over $700 for a couple plus $100 for each dependent, whenever the regular tax wouldn't apply—which would tend to decrease taxes on the low-income married taxpayer, who now must pay roughly 3 per cent (the net victory tax) on everything over $624.

HIS HANDS GONE, MAN RE-LEARNS TO WRITE, TYPE

Pittsburgh, Oct. 25 (AP)—An industrial accident last March left Arthur Chernay, 38, of Leeburg, with the mangled stump of his left hand, with no right hand at all.

Today, though his arms are not yet completely healed, he has taught himself anew to write and type—very efficiently, too—and he says he hopes soon to be able to resume his place as a full-time worker.

For writing and typing, he uses a device of his own invention, made for him by a friend. It consists of a leather jacket which fits over the stump of his right forearm and holds firmly a bent copper rod. On the rod are a pencil and a rubber-tipped instrument with which Chernay strikes the typewriter keys.

"I always typed with one finger, anyway," said Chernay, laughing. Seeks Artificial Hands

State Officers Installed By K. Of C.

Williamsport, Pa., Oct. 25 (AP)—Disapproval of American government policy restricting private agencies from administering to service men overseas was voted by Francis P. Matthews, of Omaha, Nebraska, Supreme Knight of the Knights of Columbus, at the installation of state officers here yesterday.

Installed at the ceremonies were Robert J. White, of Williamsport, new state deputy; William Lennox, of Philadelphia, state secretary; Dr. William G. Healey, of Altoona, state treasurer; George O'Hara, of Franklin, state advocate; and Francis Cunningham, of Bethlehem, state warden.

but Chernay remains constantly cheerful as he fights his way back to his livelihood. He has two special reasons for making the fight—his two motherless daughters, Betty, 12, and Patsie, 7.

Chernay is determined he will learn a trade that will enable him to support the children.

Right now he is in search of a pair of artificial hands. Those he has seen so far, he holds to be impractical for a man who expects to care for a family. He said he intends to communicate with Army Medical Department officials concerning war time developments.

Truce Extended At Cramp Yards

Philadelphia, Oct. 25 (AP)—Notified by a Philadelphia Congressman that the Navy is demanding changes in the executive set-up of the Cramp Shipbuilding company, workers at the firm's yards remained at their jobs today under an indefinite extension of the truce they voted a week ago, ending a three-day work stoppage.

The extension was voted at a meeting of Local 42, Industrial Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers (CIO) yesterday, at which Rep. Michael J. Bradley (D-Pa.) declared:

"Rear Admiral Edward L. Cochrane, chief of the Bureau of Ships in the Navy department authorized me to say today that the Navy department has notified the control-

CHAMBERSBURG HANDS MAROONS 47-6 DRUBBING

Chambersburg high kept in the thick of the race for the Southern Pennsylvania scholastic football conference title by handing Coach Mel Dry's Gettysburg warriors a 47-6 lacing at Chambersburg Saturday afternoon.

The Trojans tallied a pair of touchdowns in each of the three first periods, added another in the final quarter before allowing the Maroons to execute a pass, Dorsey to Timbers, for the locals lone score of the afternoon.

In the first period Geiman drove from its own 20-yard line deep into Gettysburg territory and then Leshler passed to J. Koutiris to put the ball on the 15. Geiman swept around end for the score. A placement for the extra point was blocked.

Later in the first period Geiman passed to Sanders for 8 yards to reach the 27. Allen rushed 15 yards to reach the Maroons' 12. Allen and Shoemaker carried the ball to within six inches of the goal and then Allen bucked over for the score. Leshler went around end for the extra point.

An intercepted pass by N. Koutiris on the Gettysburg 40-yard line followed by a 32-yard scamper put the Trojans on the 8 from where Leshler went around end for the tally. Crist converted on a placement.

After another interception on the 42. Chambersburg drove deep into Maroon territory with Allen finally whipping a pass to N. Koutiris from the 12-yard stripe for a touchdown. Crist's boot on the extra point try was wide.

The fifth Chambersburg touchdown was set up in the third period when Holler recovered a fumble on the Maroons' 48. J. Koutiris sweeping around right end for the 8-yard line for the tally. Leshler added the extra point on an end sweep.

The longest run of the afternoon came late in the third quarter when Leshler took a punt from Dorsey and raced 40 yards for a score after receiving nice blocking. J. Koutiris converted on a placement.

Heckman took a short pass from Bricker near the goal line and one step carried him over for Chambersburg's final touchdown in the fourth period. Blain plunged over for the extra point.

In the final minutes of play Gettysburg took the ball to the Trojan 37-yard line from where Dorsey flipped a pass to Timbers who ran about 20 yards for a touchdown. A pass, Dorsey to Troxell, failed for the extra point.

Chambersburg piled up 14 first downs while holding Gettysburg to three.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
New York, October 25 (AP) — Southern California apparently earned a place in the Rose Bowl Saturday—though you can't overlook Washington after that licking the scheduled Huskies handed March Field. . . . Now, with half the "split" season over, what about the other bowl candidates? . . . We're assuming the promoters are serious in their plans to hold the games. Teams like Penn, Dartmouth, Notre Dame and Purdue must be counted out because (1) they couldn't make the trips under the Navy's 48 hour restriction and (2) they probably wouldn't accept a bid anyway. . . . Duke is a Navy college too, which rules out one perennial candidate. . . . Tulane, Louisiana State, Texas and TCU are near enough to bowl sites that they might be considered and finally there's list—and what's the betting that November results won't bring out an entirely different set of candidates?

END RUN ENDED
Bill Henry, the radio commentator who used to be a sports editor, tells this one on Lt. Com. Frank Wickhorst, head of the Naval Aviation Physical Training department. . . . Wickhorst was line coach at California under Navy Bill Ingram and the Golden Bears had a big game with Washington State. . . . Just before the team left the dressing room, Wickhorst handed each player a slip of pasteboard. . . . "These are your pass-out checks," he explained. . . . They say this Washington team is going to run you right out of the stadium, so I'm giving you these tickets so you can get back in." Needless to say, the California boys didn't need to use the checks.

MONDAY MATINEE

Jack Sharkey, Jr., son of the former heavyweight champ plays full-back for Billard Academy at New London, Conn. . . . Moaner Frank Sinatra turned up at the gym the other day and asked permission to work out with heavyweight Tami Maurello. . . . Maybe he figured he'd be outclassed by Tami, but at least he wouldn't be outnumbered. . . . The Delaware Park race track, which didn't open this year because of transportation difficulties, is planning a 1944 meeting, to start May 29. . . . Willie Ritchie, who defended his crown in California's last lightweight title fight, beating Harlem Tommy Murphy in 1914, will officiate at Wednesday's Sammy Angott-Slugger White title go, as chief inspector of the California Athletic Commission. . . . When tavern-keeper Toots Shor attempted to tease some of the Mara clan about the football giants recently, Tim Mara stopped him with: "We'll never be as far behind on points as you are."

TODAY'S GUEST STAR

John Parker, Taunton (Mass.) Gazette: "From the looks of that Cardinal World Series error column, it must be concluded that St. Louis is the one place in the country where butter hasn't been rationed."

SERVICE DEPARTMENT

Sonny Horne, the sailor middleweight from Niles, Ohio, has asked to be shipped out since his 17-year-old brother, Rolie, was reported missing at sea. . . . Two of the best basketball coaches in the business, Creighton's Eddie Hickey and Niagara's Taps Gallagher, are at the Iowa pre-flight school, but Hickey is working in the boxing department. . . . Capt. Ernie Nevers of the Marines is enroute to the South Pacific war zone. . . . Probably he'll hit the Japs from a Warner double wing formation. . . . Lt. Bill Chip, son of the old time middleweight champ, and former Navy halfback, is back from the war zone and waiting orders at San Diego while Brother George, Jr., still is at Guadalcanal. . . . Jack Chevigny's Camp Lejeune (N.C.) Marine team has three Murphys in the line—not counting the ones the players peel when they're doing K.P.

RECTOR RESIGNS

Greensburg, Pa., Oct. 25 (AP)—The Rev. Thomas H. Carson, rector of Christ Episcopal church here since 1941, has resigned, effective November 25, to become dean of St. Stephen's Cathedral, Harrisburg. He will succeed the Very Rev. J. Thomas Heistand, who recently became bishop of the Harrisburg diocese.

UNBEATEN GRID TEAMS TO MEET THIS WEEKEND

By TED MEIER
New York, Oct. 25 (AP)—Army vs. Penn and Notre Dame vs. Navy, two of the most luscious tidbits of the season, top Saturday's college football program.

For weeks plucky fanatics have been hoping that these four teams—ranked with Purdue as the first five in the county—would reach October 30 unbeaten and untied.

Now that their dreams have been fulfilled the demand for tickets to see the games at Franklin Field in Philadelphia and at Cleveland's Municipal stadium can be expected to increase daily. By kickoff time it is likely that 80,000 will be on hand at Cleveland and 70,000 at Philadelphia—virtual sellouts.

In their final "turnups" Penn thumped Columbia, 33-0; Army walked over Yale, 39-7; Notre Dame crushed Illinois, 47-0; and Navy beat Georgia Tech, 28-14, scoring two touchdowns in the last period to shatter a 14-14 tie.

These scores compare with Army's earlier 52-0 rout of Columbia; Penn's 41-7 victory over Yale and Notre Dame's 55-13 conquest of Georgia Tech.

Elsewhere Saturday's chief developments included Southern California's 6-0 last period defeat of College of the Pacific before 75,000 and Michigan's running riot, 49-6, against Minnesota.

Washington trounced highly regarded March Field, 27-7, while Purdue and Tony Butkovich exploded for three touchdowns in the last quarter to beat Iowa 26-7.

In the east Colgate scored an unexpected 20-7 victory over Cornell while in the south, the Louisiana State Tigers, on the prowl for an Orange Bowl invite, crushed Georgia, 27-6, as Steven Van Buren rolled up 20 points on three touchdowns and two conversions.

The undefeated Texas Aggies lost prestige in being held to a scoreless tie by North Texas Aggies as Tulane beat Southern Methodist, 12-6, on Jim Shiver's 57-yard run. Unbeaten Tulsa got a good workout in whipping Utah, 55-0, while Nebraska upset favored Kansas, 7-6 on Walt Wilkins' 65-yard punt return.

Northwestern and Otto Graham blanked Ohio State, 13-0, the first shutout for the Buckeyes under Coach Paul Brown, while Colorado College beat Colorado university, 16-6, and Southwestern, of Texas, took a 27-6 drubbing from Southwestern of Louisiana.

BAUGH SETTING AERIAL RECORDS

By DAVE HOFF
Chicago, Oct. 25 (AP)—Sammy Baugh is setting aerial records for the Washington Redskins and Sid Luckman is sailing the Chicago Bears to victories with his touchdown pitches. The teams with the great passers are still leading the way in the two divisions of the National Football League.

Baugh, now in his seventh season, has turned in almost unheralded two new all-time records this fall—his lifetime total of 64 touchdowns passes beating the 59 set up by Cecil Isbell, of Green Bay, and his 7,057 yards gained on passing topping the 6,741 by Arne Herber, of Green Bay.

Luckman, only a five-year man in the pro league, holds no records yet but has thrown 11 touchdown passes in five games and has meant a lot to the Bears who are no longer supreme with their ground attack as in the old days.

Baugh has pitched eight aeriels for touchdowns in only three games and with seven to go is well on the way to breaking Isbell's record of 24 for a season. He threw to Joe Aguirre for one Redskin score yesterday and his aeriels paved the way for another touchdown, by Andy Farkas, that provided a 13-to-7 victory over the ambitious but still unwinning Chicago Cardinals.

Luckman threw 22 passes yesterday against the Brooklyn Dodgers and completed 15, to George Wilson for touchdowns, as his contribution to a 33 to 21 Chicago win over Pete Cawthon's boys.

SPORT SHORTS

Allentown, Pa., Oct. 25 (AP)—The University of Pennsylvania, which got its first string tackle, Lester Zetty, from Muhlenberg college, gets another star athlete from the Mules this week—and just in time.

He's Jim Crampsey, ace basketball forward who scored 404 points for Muhlenberg last season. He goes to Penn under the Navy V-5 program.

Philadelphia, Oct. 25 (AP)—Bob Montgomery, New York and Pennsylvania recognized lightweight champion, ruled a heavy favorite today over Petey Scalzo, whom he meets in a 10-rounder at Convention hall tonight. It's a time-up for Montgomery's title defense against Beau Jack in New York next month.

STEELTON GAINS LEAD IN BIG 15

(By the Associated Press)
Steelton took over the leadership of the Big 15 conference and Shennandoah vaulted into first place in the Eastern Conference's southern division, while three other loop leaders boosted their margins in the week-end firing on Pennsylvania's scholastic football front.

Steelton downed Lancaster, 13 to 0, while Williamsport was taking the measure of Harrisburg's John Harris, erstwhile Big 15 leaders, by a score of 7 to 6. As a result, Williamsport rocketed into the runner-up spot, seven points behind Steelton, and both Easton and Allentown emerged ahead of John Harris, which dropped to fifth place.

Shennandoah moved ahead of Lansford by walloping Mt. Carmel, former third place holder in the Eastern's southern division, 20-0. Plymouth built its point total up to 710, retaining leadership of the northern division by a wide margin over Kingston.

In the Western Conference, Huntington added 30 points to its total, giving it 193, by knocking off Bellefonte, 25 to 0. State College moved into second place, also gaining 30 points.

The standings:

Team	W	L	T	Pts.
Steelton	3	0	1	340

16 Teams As Yet Unbeaten, Untied

New York, Oct. 25 (AP)—Six football teams were knocked out of the unbeaten and untied class over the week-end, thinning the select group to 16.

College of the Pacific, Southwestern of Texas, March Field, Colorado university, Minnesota and Texas Aggies were the six bumped out of the rankings. The first five were defeated while the Texas Aggies played a scoreless tie with the North Texas Aggies.

Purdue tops the remaining 16, having played six games. Notre Dame, Pennsylvania, Army, Navy, Iowa Seahawks and Southern California are close behind.

Truck Driver Avoids Bad Fire

Barnesboro, Pa., Oct. 25 (AP)—Cool-headedness and bravery of 19-year-old John B. Maxwell, truck driver, probably saved the Serling Oil Company's bulk plant here from destruction by fire yesterday.

Gasoline was being pumped from Maxwell's truck to a tank when the vehicle caught fire. The youth drove the machine out of the building and 150 yards down the road where it burned.
